advantage or their position or exercise their authority for their own personal interest at the expense of ADA.

Limited frequency – Anything of Value offered to or received from a party should not be repetitive or have a recurring pattern, albeit the value is low to avoid any actual or perceived conflicts/conflicts of interest or inappropriate influence.

11. Donations and Sponsorships

Donation is something contributed or given (in cash or in kind) by ADA as charity without expecting any advantages or returns.

Sponsorship is financial support given to an association, organization or event for branding display or other benefits in return, e.g. tickets/passes, hospitality etc.

11.1 ADA occasionally makes Donations and participates in Sponsorships in countries in which we operate to further our business objectives. Such Donations or Sponsorships shall not violate our core values, policies and applicable laws.

All Stakeholders exercise good judgement and perform reasonable due diligence.

11.2 The Donations or Sponsorships should not be made to secure any improper advantage or retain any business relationship.

11.3 Good judgement and due diligence must be exercised to assess the purpose and intention of the Donation or Sponsorship, and the reputation or status of the beneficiaries. All Sponsorships or Donations shall be offered and made transparently in accordance with ADA.

12. Corporate Social Responsibility (“CSR”)

CSR is a self-regulated and ethics-driven activity to ensure the sustainability of society and our environment through voluntary activity.

- 12.1 ADA actively supports various types of CSR activities in countries in which we operate, to ensure the sustainability of society and our environment.
- 12.2 CSR activities must be carefully examined and assessed for legitimacy and genuineness in not being carried out to improperly influence a business outcome.
- 12.3 The proposed recipient must be a legitimate organization and the rightful recipient. Therefore, appropriate due diligence must be conducted to ascertain whether any Public/Government Officials are affiliated with the organization. There should be a transparent selection and decision-making process, with proper records kept.
- 12.4 CSR activities must be approved and implemented in accordance with ADA Instruments wherein the activities are structured to ensure that the intended purpose is met, and benefits are extended to the intended recipient(s).

13. Facilitation Payments

- 13.1 Facilitation Payments are gratification or inducements to secure or expedite a routine function which one person shall be or is responsible for performing as part of his/her daily roles and responsibilities. The payments are usually small payments paid unofficially to expedite routine administrative processes on matters such as visas, permits, licenses, and custom clearance.
- 13.2 Stakeholders are prohibited to directly or indirectly offer, promise, give, solicit or accept, agree to accept, or attempt to obtain anything that might be regarded as a Facilitation Payment in any form.
- 13.3 There may be certain exceptional situations or circumstances where Stakeholder(s) may have to make Facilitation Payments under duress or coercion, including life-threatening and actual or potential loss of life, limb and liberty situations. However, it must be immediately reported to the designated R&C Officers and appropriate document(s) of such incident along with the reasons must be recorded. The R&C Officers shall take immediate action(s) as may be required.

14. Conflict of Interest

14.1 All Stakeholders have a contractual obligation and are accountable for decisions made or actions taken, which should always be in the best interest of ADA.

14.2 All Stakeholders shall recognize and avoid situations of conflict of interest (actual, real, perceived or potential) to maintain integrity and develop trust by making professional and impartial business decisions.

14.3 Conflict of interest arises when an individual's objectivity is compromised or perceived to have been compromised, and there is a conflict between his/her professional duties or responsibilities at ADA and his/her personal interest.

To make impartial decisions in the best interest of ADA by recognising actual or potential conflict of interest

14.4 If any conflict of interest is identified, even if it is perceived or potential, the Stakeholder must immediately declare and report the situation(s) as referred in the ADA Instruments. The Stakeholder shall also take the necessary actions to immediately distance, recuse or remove himself/herself from the situation.

14.5 In the event of any conflict of interest by a Third Party, they must report the same to the ADA Head of Procurement in accordance with the Supplier Code of Conduct.

15. Dealing with Third Parties

15.1 ADA's commercial success is built upon knowing our business partner who shares the same ethical values and beliefs. ADA builds trust and a constructive business relationship or enters into a contractual agreement with Third Parties and any person or organization working for on behalf of ADA.

15.2 All Third Parties are expected to:

- (i) comply with this Policy.
- (ii) to execute the Supplier Code of Conduct, Supplier Declaration Form and/or any other documents as shall be prescribed by ADA prior to commencement of any business activities with ADA.
- (i) participate in any due diligence activities as prescribed by ADA;
- (ii) ensure compliance of all applicable laws and regulations (including but not limited to anti-bribery and anti-corruption laws) at all times;
- (iii) ensure that any sub-contractors appointed are made aware, amongst others, of this Policy, ADA's zero tolerance to bribery and corruption and also its "No Gift" Policy; and
- (iv) carry out any business activities for and on behalf of ADA in a professional and ethical manner at all times.

15.3 For further guidance of business relationships with Third Parties, all Personnel are required to refer to the ABAC Procedures.

16. Interactions with Public/Government Officials and Politically Exposed Persons (“PEPs”)

- 16.1 ADA operates in an industry with regular interactions with Public/Government Officials (including regulators) and PEPs, who are in a position (actual or perceived) to make or influence decisions that have an effect or impact on its business and operations.
- 16.2 ADA shall never improperly influence a Public/Government Officials and PEP to seek or retain a business advantage and will make committed efforts to transact in a fair and transparent manner. A high degree of caution and diligence shall be exercised in all dealings and interactions with regulators, Public/Government Officials and PEPs.
- 16.3 When dealing or interacting with Public/Government Officials and PEPs, all Personnel are required to adhere to the ABAC Procedures, GDS P&P and applicable laws, and all rules and regulations governing interactions with Public/Government Officials.

Things to keep in mind while interacting with Public/Government Officials and PEPs

16.4 All Stakeholders are strictly prohibited from any acts of bribery and corruption involving Public/Government Officials and PEPs.

16.5 All Stakeholders, who are required to interact with Public/Government Officials (domestic and foreign) and PEPs for or on behalf of ADA shall exercise due care by observing “PLOD” principles as explained below:
